100km Great Glen Death March

3rd/4th April 2010 from Banavie to Inverness

Enter online at www.ultramarathon.org.uk or via the registration form on the reverse of this leaflet.

Take part in the ultimate 100km 24hour endurance event crossing Scotland from West to East on the scenic and challenging Great Glen Way

Run or walk from Banavie to Inverness to complete the route in under 24 hours. The event will start at 21:00hrs and travel through the night, therefore ALL entrants must carry a fully operational headtorch and ensure they have sufficient food/water to allow them to complete the challenge.

The event is open to entrants aged 19 years and over, you must be physically fit and although water and some sports nutrition will be available, entrants will need to be self sufficient in coping with everything that a remote mountain region can throw at them.

The route follows the Great Glen Way which utilises canalside tracks, forest roads and footpaths to traverse the Great Glen from west to east

A UNIQUE MEDAL AND GOODY BAG TO ALL FINISHERS AND A SPECIAL AWARDS FOR THOSE PLACED 1st, 2nd or 3rd!

Places are strictly limited so enter now to avoid disappointment

Each entry will include a donation to aid the maintenance of the Great Glen Way and military entrants who commit to competing in uniform will also guarantee a further donation to the Army Benevolent Fund

This is an Association of Running Clubs accredited event - Permit Numbers ARC 10/20 refers
